

The Pink Hammer – 13-20 March 2021

The inaugural Pink Hammer Workshop is an absolute disaster. Annabel, Helen, Louise and Siobhan turn up, looking forward to learning carpentry skills from a pioneering, female furniture maker... but instead they find Woody, an out-of-work, disgruntled builder who's less than impressed to find four sheilas amongst his claw hammers. Not the sort of women to back down from a challenge, the group convince Woody to teach them the tricks of the trade in this hilarious and heart-warming Kiwi comedy that'll have you doubled over in laughter.

Party Mix

On Saturday 28 November 2020 we held a 'Party Mix' evening. This was comprised of a one act play, theatre sports, a comedy skit and a musical performance. We'd like to thank everyone who came along – it was a successful night, and so lovely to see familiar faces after a theatre-less year!

Major John Barham

Last month, after his sudden passing, we farewelled one of our wonderful members, Major John Barham. John, who had recently been appointed our Patron, was a generous and kind man, and an enthusiastic performer and supporter of CTG. Our thoughts are with the Barham family, and he will be greatly missed.
