

The Pink Hammer – March 2021

The inaugural Pink Hammer Workshop is an absolute disaster. Annabel, Helen, Louise and Siobhan turn up, looking forward to learning carpentry skills from a pioneering, female furniture maker... but instead they find Woody, an out-of-work, disgruntled builder who's less than impressed to find four sheilas amongst his claw hammers. Not the sort of women to back down from a challenge, the group convince Woody to teach them the tricks of the trade in this hilarious and heart-warming Kiwi comedy that'll have you doubled over in laughter.

Good news – The Pink Hammer has been rescheduled, as our March 2021 show! Sadly we just couldn't make the dates work to fit in with the remainder of 2020 but never fear, it just means 2021 will be bigger and better! Keep an eye out on Facebook and our website, www.clydetheatregroup.co.nz, for announcements on new show dates and when tickets will go on sale.

CTG, alongside our director Nick Meissel and all cast and crew, look forward to seeing you at the show!

Archiving

Our wonderful Joy Ramsay has the great task of pulling together our archives! So to aid her in her task, we're putting the call out for any old photos or records from previous shows to help build up CTG's history. Please send anything you have through to clydetheatre@gmail.com

Check out our The Pink Hammer cast – this was a Zoom lines run during the lockdown! Talk about dedication to the Arts – March 2021 can't come soon enough!

Back in May the Hall got a bit of a makeover – here's the new lighting grid above the stage! This is going to work great for future productions.

Calling all techies!

Would you like to get involved with CTG, just not on the stage? Fear not, we can always use some more hands backstage! If you'd like to get involved with the tech team, contact us with expressions of interest.

AGM Reminder

It's nearly that time of year again – AGM! We'll be in touch over the coming weeks with a date for our AGM, held late August.
