

The Pink Hammer – An emotional success!

Well, 2021 was the year it finally happened – to the delight of cast, crew and audiences, The Pink Hammer made it on stage. Running from 13-20 March, our talented cast brought to life Woody, Annabel, Helen, Louise and Siobhan – vastly different people connecting through their joy and heartbreak. We are so grateful to our audience who came on the journey with us, whether they found an emotional connection or just enjoyed a good laugh. Thank you for your continued support!

Feedback for The Pink Hammer:

“Well done all of you...such a range of emotions, you each played your characters so well...so well I shed tears!”

“It was a play that had a little bit of everything – we laughed, almost cried, could identify with lots of the sentiments. Definitely a production to be proud of.”

“A standing ovation and many of the audience in tears. This play delivers!”

“This play has so many layers – wonderful actors, wonderful storyline – clever presentation – I want to go again!”

Save The Date: Winter Warmer – 21 August 2021

Following the success of our Party Mix evening back in November, we thought we'd do another! This time as a Winter Warmer, so come and join us for a one act play (featuring some new faces!) and a quiz night – nothing like a bit of healthy competition to keep the winter blues at bay.

Directing Workshop

Last Saturday we had the talented and experienced Lisa Warrington – former Associate Professor at Otago University – hold a directing workshop for us. We covered the basics of the directing process – warm ups, learning your script, how to work with your actors – and why each element is important. She was an advocate for not being afraid to take chances, doing something out of the ordinary, and challenging the text the playwright has given you. Those in attendance learnt a lot from her and we cannot wait to put it into practice. Keep an eye out for our upcoming work – there may be a new face in the director's chair!

From the Archives

Check out this fantastic throwback from our show Cinderella Meets the Mother In Law. Don't these lovely ladies look beautiful?!
